The Lord's Supper: Today we have the privilege of receiving Christ's body and blood for the assurance of the forgiveness of our sins, and as an expression of the common faith we share. What a blessed means of God's grace the Lord's Supper is! Because the Lord's Supper is an important expression of unity in faith, we ask visitors who desire to commune to speak with one of the pastors before the service.

Prayer: Dear precious Savior, as I approach your table, make me worthy, acceptable, and mindful that your grace alone gives me the privilege to partake of this blessed Sacrament. I am sinful by nature. I have been discouraged. I have given way to needless worries. I have questioned your promises, and I have had a doubtful mind. Blot out all my sins against you and all people. Create in me a clean and pure heart, a greater faith, and the grace to walk with you in that way which leads to life eternal. Draw me to yourself with your constricting love, and send me on my way rejoicing because of the forgiveness and peace that I have received at your table of love and grace. Preserve me in this union with you and the fellowship of those with whom I share this blessed meal. Most gracious Savior and Lord, continue to be with me and all your people until our journey's end. Amen.

To avoid disruptions, please silence your cell phones before worship.

Preacher: Pastor Richard Warnecke

GREETING

P: The grace of our Lord (†) Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE END OF LENT

P: In this Lenten season, we have heard our Lord's call to intensify our struggle against sin, death, and the devil—all that keeps us from loving God and one another. This is the struggle to which we were committed at baptism; God's forgiveness and the power of his Spirit to amend our lives continue with us because of his love for us in Jesus our Savior.

With the family of the church, God never wearies of giving peace and new life. In the absolution we receive forgiveness as from God himself. This absolution we should not doubt, but firmly believe that thereby our sins are forgiven before God in heaven, for it comes to us in the name and by the command of our Lord.

We who receive God's love in Jesus Christ are called to love one another, to be servants as Jesus became our Servant. It is, however, in Holy Communion that the members of Christ's body participate most intimately in his love.

Remembering our Lord's last supper with his disciples, we eat the bread and drink the cup of this meal. Together we receive the Lord's gift of his body and blood and participate in that new covenant that makes us one in him. The Lord's Supper is the promise of the great banquet we will share with all the faithful when our Lord returns, the culmination of our reconciliation with God and one another.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: Let us confess our sins to God and ask for his forgiveness.

C: Almighty God, merciful Father, I confess to you that I have not loved you with all my heart. I have pursued my ways instead of your ways. In what I have done and left undone, I have not loved my brothers and sisters as myself. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. I am truly sorry for my sins. I repent of them. I beg for your mercy, O Lord.

P: The almighty God has been merciful to us and has sent his Son to die for all. For his sake he forgives us our sins and calls us from darkness to his marvelous light. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Exodus 12: 1-14

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, “This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb for his family, one for each household. If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. Then they are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs. That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD’s Passover.

“On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

“This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.”

EPISTLE LESSON Hebrews 10: 15-25

The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. First he says:

“This is the covenant I will make with them
after that time, says the Lord.
I will put my laws in their hearts,
and I will write them on their minds.”

Then he adds:

“Their sins and lawless acts
I will remember no more.”

And where these have been forgiven, sacrifice for sin is no longer necessary.

Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

SERMON TEXT Matthew 26: 26-28

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take and eat; this is my body.”

Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.”

“Abide with Me”

1 A - bide with me; fast falls the e - ven - tide.
2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's lit - tle day;
3 Come not in ter - rors, as the King of kings,
4 Thou on my head in ear - ly youth didst smile,
5 I need thy pres - ence ev - 'ry pass - ing hour.

The dark - ness deep - ens; Lord, with me a - bide.
Earth's joys grow dim; its glo - ries pass a - way.
But kind and good, with heal - ing in thy wings,
And though re - bel - lious and per - verse mean - while,
What but thy grace can foil the tempt - er's pow'r?

When oth - er help - ers fail and com - forts flee,
Change and de - cay in all a - round I see;
Tears for all woes, a heart for ev - 'ry plea;
Thou hast not left me oft as I left thee.
Who like thy - self my guide and stay can be?

Help of the help - less, oh, a - bide with me!
O thou who chang - est not, a - bide with me!
Come, Friend of sin - ners, thus a - bide with me.
On to the close, O Lord, a - bide with me.
Through cloud and sun - shine, oh, a - bide with me!

6 I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still if thou abide with me.

7 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies.
Heav'n's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

The evening worship, our annual Tenebrae service, will be completely different than our noon service. Tenebrae is the Latin word for darkness. Holy Saturday Worship: Holy Saturday worship will be held Saturday, April 20 at 5:00 pm. Join us as we wait in expectant anticipation of Jesus' resurrection.

Easter Sunrise Worship: This early morning Easter worship service with the Lord's Supper will begin at 6:30 am on Sunday, April 21 and will be completely different from our later services.

Easter Festival Worship: Our later Easter morning services with the Lord's Supper will begin at 8:00 am and 10:30 am on Sunday, April 21. These special services will focus on the glorious resurrection of our Savior in Word and song led by our choirs.

Easter Breakfasts: Easter is Sunday, April 21, and our annual Easter Breakfast will be held at 7:15-8:00 am and 9:10-10:15 am. We hope you all will be able to come and praise your risen Lord on Easter and enjoy the food and fellowship between our three Easter morning worship services. There are plenty of opportunities to assist with this annual event! Please see the purple sign-up sheets on the kiosk, if you wish to bake or help with prepping, serving, or cleaning up. Please call Deb Heuer at 262-993-3005, if you have any questions.

News & Events

Pastor Engelbrecht received a call to serve at St. Matthew's in Oconomowoc as a Resident Missionary. Pray for Pastor Engelbrecht that the Lord would guide him where best to serve, either to remain here at Christ or to move to a new beginning. Your comments and concerns for him and his family will be greatly appreciated. Our church body is beginning to experience a shortage of pastors that will become more severe in the next few years. Pray that the Lord would continue to bless his church with faithful ministers of the gospel here and throughout the world.

We have called Rebecca Berger as our Preschool Director at our voters meeting. Pray for Rebecca Berger that the Lord would guide her where best to serve. She writes, "I am filled with joy and awe as I think about what this means: Through human representatives, God is asking me to take on a role in the ministry of Christ Lutheran Church. I ask for your prayers, counsel, and good will as I deliberate this call. Unlike the hired positions I have held previously, a call holds greater significance than simply an opportunity to apply my skills in a new setting. Over the coming days, I will be contemplating and praying about God's plan for me and for our congregation. Please do the same, and speak with me about the call if you are so inclined."

Easter Breakfasts: Breakfast will be served between the Easter services on Sunday, April 21, starting at 7:15 am and 9:10 am. Please check out the purple sign-up sheets in the gathering area if you can help with this wonderful tradition. You may assist in these three different ways. (1) Come Saturday morning to set tables/cut up fruit/prepare food. (2) Come Sunday morning to help serve/clean up. (3) Bring bakery items. Everyone is welcome!

Young Professionals' Bourbon Tasting Join us on Saturday, April 27, 7:00-9:00 pm for a guided education through the history of bourbon and taste a sampling of Kentucky bourbons. Ages 21+ only will meet at N60W23790 Butternut Lane in Sussex. This free event is limited to 25 people, so please sign up in the gathering area. To learn more, please contact Nicole Nelson at nicole.elizabeth.nelson@gmail.com or 262-515-2656.

The Voters Meeting will be held on Thursday, May 2 at 7:00 pm. Plan on attending!
