Worship Leader: Pastor Richard Warnecke

Preacher: Pastor Richard Krause

Prayer: Almighty God, who by your Son Jesus Christ commanded the apostles that they should go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature: grant to us whom you have called into your church a ready will to obey your Word, and fill us with an eager desire to make your way known upon earth, your saving health among all nations. Look with compassion upon the multitudes who are scattered abroad as sheep having no shepherd. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

GREETING

P: The grace of our Lord (†) Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: We have come into the presence of God, who created us to love and serve him as his dear children. But we have disobeyed him and deserve only his wrath and punishment. Therefore, let us confess our sins to him and plead for his mercy.

C: Merciful Father in heaven, I am altogether sinful from birth. In countless ways I have sinned against you and do not deserve to be called your child. But trusting in Jesus, my Savior, I pray: Have mercy on me according to your unfailing love. Cleanse me from my sin, and take away my guilt.

P: God, our heavenly Father, has forgiven all your sins. By the perfect life and innocent death of our Lord Jesus Christ, he has removed your guilt forever. You are his own dear child. May God give you strength to live according to his will.

C: Amen.

PRAYER AND PRAISE

P: In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise the Lord.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Jeremiah 23: 1-6

“Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of my pasture!” declares the LORD. Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to the shepherds who tend my people: “Because you have scattered my flock and driven them away and have not bestowed care on them, I will bestow punishment on you for the evil you have done,” declares the LORD. “I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them and will bring them back to their pasture, where they will be fruitful and increase in number. I will place shepherds over them who will tend them, and they will no longer be afraid or terrified, nor will any be missing,” declares the LORD.

“The days are coming,” declares the LORD,
“when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch,
a King who will reign wisely
and do what is just and right in the land.
In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety.
This is the name by which he will be called:
The LORD Our Righteous Savior.

EPISTLE LESSON Ephesians 2: 11-22

Therefore, remember that formerly you who are Gentiles by birth and called “uncircumcised” by those who call themselves “the circumcision” (which is done in the body by human hands)—remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

For he himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, by setting aside in his flesh the law with its commands and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new humanity out of the two, thus making peace, and in one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility. He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.

Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God’s people and also members of his household, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.

SERMON TEXT Mark 6: 30-44

The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught. Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, “Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest.”

So they went away by themselves in a boat to a solitary place. But many who saw them leaving recognized them and ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them. When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

By this time it was late in the day, so his disciples came to him. “This is a remote place,” they said, “and it’s already very late. Send the people away so that they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

But he answered, “You give them something to eat.”

They said to him, “That would take more than half a year’s wages! Are we to go and spend that much on bread and give it to them to eat?”

“How many loaves do you have?” he asked. “Go and see.”

When they found out, they said, “Five—and two fish.”

Then Jesus directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass. So they sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to his disciples to distribute to the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces of bread and fish. The number of the men who had eaten was five thousand.

GATHERING OF THE THANKOFFERING

“What Boundless Love” (soloist)

There is an everlasting kindness you lavished on us
When the radiance of heaven came to rescue the lost;
You called the sheep without a shepherd to leave their distress
For your streams of forgiveness and the shade of your rest.

And with compassion for the hurting you reached out your hand
As the lame ran to meet you and the dead breathed again;
You saw behind the eyes of sorrow and shared in our tears,
Heard the sigh of the weary, let the children draw near.

*What boundless love, what fathomless grace
You have shown us, O God of compassion!
Each day you live, and offering of praise
As we show to the world your compassion.*

We stand beneath the cross of Calvary and gaze on your face,
As the thorns of oppression and the wounds of disgrace;
For surely you have borne our suffering and carried our grief
As you pardoned the scoffer and showed grace to the thief.

How beautiful the feet that carry this gospel of peace
To the fields of injustice and the valleys of need—
To be a voice of hope and healing, to answer the cries
Of the hungry and helpless with the mercy of Christ.

Building Update: You are encouraged to view a video about our proposed new addition on our church website, www.christpewaukee.org. Recently a letter with more information was sent to all our member families. Pray and consider how you can help us to meet our year end goal of $2.6 million. At present we are at $2,317,994. Extra envelopes are available on the kiosk in the gathering area. May our gracious God bless this and all endeavors undertaken in his name and dedicated to the spread of his kingdom.

The drawings for our addition are being finalized for City of Pewaukee Plan Commission Approval and for our contractor, Catalyst Construction, to solicit for construction bids. Catalyst is committed to working closely with our congregation and asks for our help making connections. During this weekend's services we will distribute "Time & Talent" information sheets. Please use these to let Catalyst know if you are part of, or know of a subcontracting company that might want to bid on the project. There is also a section to list any construction skills you may have and if you are willing to donate some of your time. Please give both of these opportunities prayerful consideration as we take the next steps in this exciting time for our congregation.

Our Ministry in Christ's International Friendship Center (IFC) continues to interact with the Asians in our local community. Its success depends on its dedicated volunteers, many of whom have attended activities and extended their friendship. As the program continues to grow we are seeking more volunteers who are willing to do a number of specific tasks. A survey is provided on the table in the gathering area for volunteers to select areas of interest. These tasks will not be limited to what is in the survey. Some are designed for those who can help on a limited, as needed basis. Others will be recruited for specific events or projects. We request anyone who is interested — already serving or new — to fill out a survey and turn it in to Alicia Ulm in the church office. We will appreciate your prayers, support and willingness to serve at any level.

Do you enjoy working with young children? Why not consider using your love for children in service to Jesus? Lambs of Christ Learning Center gives you the opportunity to do just that! We are currently hiring both teachers and aides to join our team for the upcoming school year. Give our director Molly Brooks a call at 262-691-0720 ext. 150 for more details, or email her at mbrooks@christpewaukee.org.

We need Sunday School teachers and helpers! The top requirement for our teachers is a love for Jesus and a love for his children. Please consider serving your Savior in this way. You don't have to be a professional teacher to serve. Each teacher is paired with another so that teachers don't teach every week. Materials are provided that are easy to follow, and aides are assigned to each room. Please prayerfully consider being a part of this important and rewarding ministry to carry out Jesus' desire to keep our children in saving faith in him. For more information contact Ron Morrow at ron2morrow@yahoo.com or 414-559-8829, or Pastor Gerbing at 262-691-0720 or pastorgerbing@christpewaukee.org.
