help my unbelief

Worship Leader: Pastor Bradley Taylor
Preacher: Pastor Richard Krause

Prayer: O Lord Jesus Christ, who is the life and light of all your servants, we ask you to help and inspire those who teach in our Sunday schools, and those also who prepare them for their work. Pour out upon them the spirit of unceasing prayer and faithful service; encourage them with good success; strengthen their faith and purpose when they are weary and disheartened; and fortify them with your assurance that they are fellow-workers together with you. Amen.

INVOCATION

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

C: But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

P: We confess, kind Father, that we have not loved you with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our strength.

C: Forgive us, Lord.

P: We confess that we have not loved our neighbor as ourselves.

C: Forgive us, Lord.

P: We confess that we have not kept your law perfectly, and we are powerless to do so on our own.

C: Forgive us, Lord.

P: For Jesus' sake we come to you for forgiveness, strength, guidance, and renewal saying:

C: God, be merciful to me, a sinner.

P: God, our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

PRAYER

P: We thank you, almighty and compassionate God, for the mercy you have shown us in Jesus our Savior. Through him you have taken away our guilt and have given the peace of full forgiveness. Lead us to love others as you have loved us, forgiving them just as in Christ we have been forgiven. In his name we pray.

C: Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Isaiah 50: 4-10

The Sovereign LORD has given me a well-instructed tongue, to know the word that sustains the weary.

He wakens me morning by morning,
wakens my ear to listen like one being instructed.

The Sovereign LORD has opened my ears;

I have not been rebellious,

I have not turned away.

I offered my back to those who beat me,

my cheeks to those who pulled out my beard;

I did not hide my face

from mocking and spitting.

Because the Sovereign LORD helps me,

I will not be disgraced.

Therefore have I set my face like flint,

and I know I will not be put to shame.

He who vindicates me is near.

Who then will bring charges against me?

Let us face each other!

Who is my accuser?
Let him confront me!
It is the Sovereign LORD who helps me.
Who will condemn me?
They will all wear out like a garment;
the moths will eat them up.

Who among you fears the LORD
and obeys the word of his servant?
Let the one who walks in the dark,
who has no light,
trust in the name of the LORD
and rely on their God.

GOSPEL LESSON

Mark 9: 14-29

When they came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and the teachers of the law arguing with them. As soon as all the people saw Jesus, they were overwhelmed with wonder and ran to greet him.

“What are you arguing with them about?” he asked.

A man in the crowd answered, “Teacher, I brought you my son, who is possessed by a spirit that has robbed him of speech. Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth and becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to drive out the spirit, but they could not.”

“You unbelieving generation,” Jesus replied, “how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy to me.”

So they brought him. When the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.

Jesus asked the boy’s father, “How long has he been like this?”

“From childhood,” he answered. “It has often thrown him into fire or water to kill him. But if you can do anything, take pity on us and help us.”

“If you can?” said Jesus. “Everything is possible for one who believes.”

Immediately the boy’s father exclaimed, “I do believe; help me overcome my unbelief!”

When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to the scene, he rebuked the impure spirit. “You deaf and mute spirit,” he said, “I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.”

The spirit shrieked, convulsed him violently and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, "He's dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him to his feet, and he stood up.

After Jesus had gone indoors, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

He replied, "This kind can come out only by prayer."

SERMON TEXT James 3: 1-12

Not many of you should become teachers, my fellow believers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly. We all stumble in many ways. Anyone who is never at fault in what they say is perfect, able to keep their whole body in check.

When we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we can turn the whole animal. Or take ships as an example. Although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go. Likewise, the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark. The tongue also is a fire, a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole body, sets the whole course of one's life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell.

All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and sea creatures are being tamed and have been tamed by mankind, but no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse human beings, who have been made in God's likeness. Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this should not be. Can both fresh water and salt water flow from the same spring? My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water.

SERMON THEME TAMING THE TONGUE

- I. The incredible power of the tongue.
- II. Fighting the fire of the tongue.
- III. Striving for perfection.

INSTALLATION OF SUNDAY SCHOOL STAFF (Sunday Services)

P: Dear friends in Christ, you have been called as teachers and staff in the Sunday school of this congregation. You are doing the work the Lord committed to his Church: to teach the gospel of Jesus Christ, to make disciples of all nations, and to feed the lambs of the Lord Jesus. You do this work on behalf of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church and in association with the parents who entrust their children to your instruction and care.

Your work is both a great privilege and a serious responsibility. To equip yourselves for this blessed work it is necessary that you faithfully study God's Word, devote yourselves to prayer for those entrusted to your care, and carefully prepare for the lessons you will teach. It is also of great importance in the teaching of the Savior's little ones that you set an example by leading a Christian life.

I now ask you, in the presence of God and this congregation:

P: Are you willing to accept this responsibility and to do your work faithfully, according to the ability God has given to you? If so, answer: Yes, and I ask God to help me. (Yes, and I ask God to help me.)

I now install you as teachers and staff in the Sunday school of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church, in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

May God grant you his Holy Spirit and give you wisdom and strength to carry out your duties, to his glory and for the good of his children.

EXHORTATION TO THE CONGREGATION

P: Dear members of this congregation, I urge you to regard this staff as servants of Jesus Christ, teachers of the gospel, and God's gifts to his Church. Support them in their work, pray for them, and bring your children to Sunday school so that you and your family may receive the eternal blessings the Lord promises to those who hear and learn his Word.

Let us pray.

Gracious Savior, you bless every effort to bring children up in the Christian faith. We ask you to give wisdom, kindness, and perseverance to teachers who feed your lambs. Teach them your truth so that they may teach others. Cause the children entrusted to their care to be eager to learn about their Savior. Make their parents diligent in leading their children to learn their lessons, and give them hearts that support the work of the teachers you have called. May your goodness go out into all the earth, so that people in this community and everywhere may hear it and believe it, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

P: May the almighty God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—bless and keep you. Go in the peace of the Lord.

PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

C: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Supper: Today we have the privilege of receiving Christ's body and blood for the assurance of the forgiveness of our sins, and as an expression of the common faith we share. What a blessed means of God's grace the Lord's Supper is! Offerings and Communion Cards can be deposited into the labeled boxes as you exit.

Bulletins can be taken home with you or can be deposited into recycling containers as you exit worship.

“Encounters with Jesus”

How can the encounters people had with Jesus thousands of years ago apply to us today? Well, news flash! People have not changed much at all. We face the same life problems that people faced thousands of years ago when Jesus walked this earth. Every generation has to struggle through life with the answers and advice handed down to them from previous generations – and most of those answers are only partly helpful or don't even help at all! That's what makes an encounter with Jesus different. He changes everything. People come to find that he does not just have the answers – he is the answer. In our new 7-week Wednesday sermon series starting September 15, we'll consider just a few of those encounters. It's our prayer that whether you are considering these encounters with Jesus for the first time or the hundredth, you will be struck again by Jesus and what he has done for you.

“The Bloodstained Path to God” Adult Bible Class is held on Sundays at 9:10 am in the grand hall. In Old Testament times worship was very different from what we know today. Believers slaughtered animals, splashed blood on the altar and worshipers, burned the carcasses, and were served by priests who functioned quite differently than pastors do. Special festivals were celebrated that were quite unlike the holidays we’re used to in the New Testament church. Why the difference? What was God’s intention? Do these ancient practices have anything to say to us today? Do they help clarify what we believe and why we believe the way we do now? Join us and discover for yourself how great our God’s wisdom is.

Early Risers Bible Class meets on Tuesdays at 8:00 am in the lower level confirmation room. Join us on a journey with Jesus through the Gospel of Luke. Contact Pastor Gerbing in advance if you would like to join the class on Zoom.

Prayer Partners will meet on Wednesday, Sept. 15 at 10:00 am and 3:00 pm in the conference room. They study the Book of Psalms and pray for individuals who have requested prayers. All are welcome!

New Monday Women's Bible Study: We are postponing the beginning of this Bible Study. Thanks for your patience. Keep watch for the new beginning date and time. Please contact Pastor Rich Warnecke (262-424-8792) if you have any questions.

The Sunday Women's Bible Study will meet on Sept. 19 at 1:30 pm in the grand hall.
