WELCOME TO WORSHIP

“Jesus, I Will Ponder Now”

Jesus, I will ponder now
On your holy passion;
With your Spirit me endow
For such meditation.
Grant that I in love and faith
May the image cherish
Of your suffering, pain, and death
That I may not perish.

Yet, O Lord, not thus alone
Make me see your passion,
But its cause to me make known
And its termination.
Ah! I also and my sin
Wrought your deep affliction;
This indeed the cause has been
Of your crucifixion.

If my sins give me alarm
And my conscience grieve me,
Let your cross my fear disarm;
Peace of conscience give me.
Help me see forgiveness won
By your holy passion.
If for me he slays his Son,
God must have compassion. (CW 98:1,2,4)

INVOCATION

P: We begin our worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Our help is in the name of the Lord,
C: The maker of heaven and earth.

P: The Lord has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to the nations.
C: He has remembered his love and faithfulness toward his people.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: God hears all who turn to him, humbly confessing their sins and relying on his Son Jesus for forgiveness. Take a moment to contemplate your sins of this day and past days and confess them to your Lord.

(silence for personal confession)

P: O Lord, hear my prayer, listen to my cry for mercy,
C: And in your faithfulness, come to my relief.

P: Do not bring your servant into judgment,
C: For no one living is righteous before you.

P: Answer me quickly, O Lord; my spirit fails.
C: Do not hide your face from me, for I have put my trust in you.

P: Show me the way to go, for to you I lift up my soul.
C: Teach me to do your will, for you are my God.

P: In mercy God gave his one and only Son to live a perfect life, to die a cruel death, and to rise triumphant from the grave. Through him all your sins have been forgiven. You are at peace with God.
C: Amen.

SERMON TEXT Matthew 27: 11-26

Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

“You have said so,” Jesus replied.

When he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he gave no answer. Then Pilate asked him, “Don’t you hear the testimony they are bringing against you?” But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge—to the great amazement of the governor.

Now it was the governor's custom at the festival to release a prisoner chosen by the crowd. At that time they had a well-known prisoner whose name was Jesus Barabbas. So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to release to you: Jesus Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Messiah?" For he knew it was out of self-interest that they had handed Jesus over to him.

While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat, his wife sent him this message: "Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him."

But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.

"Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" asked the governor.

"Barabbas," they answered.

"What shall I do, then, with Jesus who is called the Messiah?" Pilate asked.

They all answered, "Crucify him!"

"Why? What crime has he committed?" asked Pilate.

But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify him!"

When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that instead an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. "I am innocent of this man's blood," he said. "It is your responsibility!"

All the people answered, "His blood is on us and on our children!"

Then he released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified.

GATHERING OF THE THANKOFFERING

"My Song Is Love Unknown" (soloist, 6:30 pm service)

My song is love unknown, my Savior's love to me.

Love to the loveless shown, that they might lovely be.

Oh, who am I that for my sake

My Lord should take frail flesh and die?

He came from heaven's throne, salvation to bestow;
But they refused and none, the longed-for Christ, would know.
This is my friend, my friend indeed,
Who at my need his life did spend.

Sometimes they crowd his way and his sweet praises sing;
Resounding all the day, hosannas to their King.
Then "Crucify" is all their breath
And for his death they thirst and cry.

Why, what has my Lord done to cause this rage and spite?
He made the lame to run and gave the blind their sight.
Sweet injuries! Yet they at these Themselves displease and 'gainst him rise.

With angry shouts they have my dear Lord done away.
A murderer they save, the Prince of Life they slay.
Yet willingly he bears the shame
That through his name all might be free.

Here might I stay and sing of him my soul adores.
Never was love, dear King, never was grief like yours.
This is my friend in whose sweet praise
I, all my days, would gladly spend.

“The Crucified King” Midweek Lenten Worship Services

Our theme is “The Crucified King.” Who would ever expect God’s King to be betrayed, denied, accused, mocked, and crucified? Who would ever look for the King on the throne of a cross on a hill of disgrace? Who would ever look for God’s glory in a Crucified King? Scripture makes clear the identity of this King and what he has come to do. He presents to us Jesus, the King of Glory, whose splendor is shown in His mercy and self-giving love for sinners. “Where is the King of the Jews?” Where man would never expect Him to be—on the cross bearing away our sins, and rising victorious over them in the resurrection.

Our Midweek Lenten Worship Services are offered held at the usual time on Wednesdays at 12:00 & 6:30 pm. Why not commit yourselves to attend as many of the mid-week Lenten services as you can with your family? You will experience even greater joy in Christ’s victory over death this Easter!

Lenten Meals: Lunch is served at about 12:45 pm after the noon Lenten services, and a supper precedes the evening services at 5:30 pm for the entire season of Lent.
