Prayer: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I begin another year. I want to live each day in the clear knowledge that it is your day. Keep me active in service to you and my fellowman during this coming year. Show me your love and mercy in Christ as you have done in the past. Give me opportunities to share Christ's love and mercy with others, and give me the strength and the will to do so. Remind me constantly of how much I am grateful to you for your boundless love and mercy. Help me to live this year of grace as your child, O Lord. Amen.

INVOCATION

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND ABSOLUTION

P: Dear friends, let us approach God with true hearts and confess our sins, asking him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to forgive us.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I have sinned against you this year, this month, this week, this day, this hour. Some of my sin I know—the thoughts and words and deeds of which I am ashamed—and some is known only to you. I pray: forgive me, deliver me, and restore to me the joy of your salvation.

(silence for contemplation)

P: By the mercy of God through Jesus Christ our Savior, all your sins have been forgiven. You are at peace with God.

C: Amen.

Be seated

Remember God

P: My son, do not forget my teachings;

C: But keep my commands in your heart.

P: So then, banish anxiety from your heart and cast off the troubles of your body, for youth and vigor are meaningless;

C: Remember your creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come and the years approach when you will say, “I find no pleasure in them.”

P: Before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark, and the clouds return after the rain; when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men stoop, when the grinders cease because they are few, and those looking through the windows grow dim; when the doors to the street are closed and the sound of grinding fades;

C: When men rise up at the sound of birds, but all their songs grow faint, when men are afraid of heights and dangers in the streets; when the almond tree blossoms and the grasshopper drags himself along and desire no longer is stirred. Then man goes to his eternal home and mourners go about the streets.

P: Remember him—before the silver cord is severed.

C: Or the golden bowl is broken;

P: Before the pitcher is shattered at the spring;

C: Or the wheel broken at the well,

P: And the dust returns to the ground it came from;

C: And the spirit returns to God who gave it.

P: Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.

C: For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil.

“The Day Is Surely Drawing Near”

The day is surely drawing near
When God’s Son, the Anointed,
Shall with great majesty appear
As judge of all appointed.
All mirth and laughter then shall cease
When flames on flames will still increase,
As Scripture truly teaches.

O Jesus Christ, do not delay,
But hasten our salvation;
We often tremble on our way
In fear and tribulation.
Your saints are waiting patiently;
Come soon, Redeemer, make us free
From ev’ry evil. Amen. (CW 207:1,6)

Keep Your Priorities Straight

GOSPEL LESSON Luke 12:16-21 (The Parable of the Rich Fool)

And he told them this parable: “The ground of a certain rich man yielded an abundant harvest. He thought to himself, ‘What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.’”

“Then he said, ‘This is what I’ll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store my surplus grain. And I’ll say to myself, “You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.”’”

“But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?’”

“This is how it will be with whoever stores up things for themselves but is not rich toward God.”

P: “Then Jesus said to his disciples: “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear,

C: But seek his kingdom, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

P: “Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will not be exhausted, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

C: For where your treasure is there your heart will be also.”

“All Depends on Our Possessing”

All depends on our possessing
God’s abundant grace and blessing,
Though all earthly wealth depart.
They who trust with faith unshaken
In their God are not forsaken
And e’er keep a dauntless heart.

Well he knows what best to grant me;
All the longing hopes that haunt me,
Joy and sorrow have their day.
I shall doubt his wisdom never—
As God wills, so be it ever—
I to him commit my way. (CW 421:1,4)

Flee Evil

P: Dear friends, I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul.

C: Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us.

P: O Lord, have mercy upon us.

C: Thanks be to you, O Lord!

Pray for Divine Protection

P: My times are in your hands;

C: Deliver me from my enemies and from those who pursue me.

P: Let your face shine on your servant;

C: Save me in your unfailing love.

Heed the Call to Persevere

P: Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy place by the blood of Jesus;

C: By a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body,

P: And since we have a great priest over the house of God;

C: Let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our bodies washed with pure water.

P: Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess;

C: For he who promised is faithful.

P: And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.

C: Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the day approaching.

P: So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded. You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised.

C: For in just a very little while, “He who is coming will come and will not delay. But my righteous one will live by faith. And if he shrinks back, I will not be pleased with him.”

All: But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who believe and are saved.

Trust in the Lord

P: The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?

C: The Lord is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?

P: When evil men advance against me to devour my flesh, when my enemies and my foes attack me, they will stumble and fall.

C: Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear; though war break out against me, even then will I be confident.

P: One thing I ask of the Lord, this is what I seek; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the Lord and to seek him in his temple.

C: For in the day of trouble he will keep me safe in his dwelling, he will hide me in the shelter of his tabernacle and set me high upon a rock.

P: Then you will go on your way in safety, and your foot will not stumble;

C: When you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

P: Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked,

C: For the Lord will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being snared.

P: The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you.

C: He will never leave you nor forsake you.

P: Do not be afraid;

C: Do not be discouraged.

SERMON TEXT Luke 13: 1-9

Now there were some present at that time who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. Jesus answered, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans because they suffered this way? I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish. Or those eighteen who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem? I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.”

Then he told this parable: “A man had a fig tree growing in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it but did not find any. So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, ‘For three years now I’ve been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven’t found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?’

“‘Sir,’ the man replied, ‘leave it alone for one more year, and I’ll dig around it and fertilize it. If it bears fruit next year, fine! If not, then cut it down.’”

PRAYER

P: I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth.” “Blessed, indeed,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them” (Revelation 14:13).

Let us remember with thanksgiving those who have gone before us in the faith, for they were created by God to offer him praise and thanksgiving forever, and he gave them new life through his Son in holy baptism, and nourished them in the company of his people at his holy table, and in his mercy has summoned them to his nearer presence so that they may continue in joyful service to him forever.

We name those who have gone before us in 2019:

Dagmar Kaufman, Carol Polzin, August Bahr, Richard Lutzke, Anita Hess, Karl Swanson, Robert Larson, William Platt, Edna Priefer, Lois Meister, Florence Draeger, Margaret Riemer, Pawn Neumann

P: In joyful expectation of the resurrection to life, we remember before you, O Lord, all our departed family and friends who have gone before us in faith. We offer thanksgiving for the gift of faith and hold fast to the certainty of your promises.

P: We pray: Lord, remember your church throughout the world; make all its members grow in love for you and for one another.

C: As you have received our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest in the hope of the resurrection to eternal life, bring us at the last with them into the light of your presence, that in union with all your saints we may give you glory forever, through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

C: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER AND BLESSING

P: O God our Father, by your mercy and might the world turns safely into darkness and returns again to light. We place into your hands our unfinished tasks, our unsolved problems, and our unfulfilled hopes, knowing that only what you bless will prosper. To your great love and protection, we commit each other and all those we love, knowing that you alone are our sure defender.

C: Amen.

P: The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The Lord look on you with favor and (†) give you peace.

C: Amen.

Earth's joys grow dim; its glo - ries pass a - way.
But kind and good, with heal - ing in thy wings,
And though re - bel - lious and per - verse mean - while,
What but thy grace can foil the tempt - er's pow'r?

When oth - er help - ers fail and com - forts flee,
Change and de - cay in all a - round I see;
Tears for all woes, a heart for ev - 'ry plea;
Thou hast not left me oft as I left thee.
Who like thy - self my guide and stay can be?

Help of the help - less, oh, a - bide with me!
O thou who chang - est not, a - bide with me!
Come, Friend of sin - ners, thus a - bide with me.
On to the close, O Lord, a - bide with me.
Through cloud and sun - shine, oh, a - bide with me!

6 I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still if thou abide with me.

7 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies.
Heav'n's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

Available Services: There are restrooms in the coatroom area, the parents' room and downstairs across from the fellowship hall. Hearing Assistive Devices are available from an usher. We have both ear buds and loop FM receivers for those with hearing aids. Our ushers are glad to provide large print bulletins or worship folders for those needing them.

Attention Parents: If you need a place to take a crying or noisy child during the service, you may use the parents' room adjacent to the sanctuary. You can hear and view the service there. You will find a diaper changing station in the parents' room and in both restrooms located in the coatroom area.

Please note the following worship service changes: There will be no are no worship services on Wednesday, January 1. Our regular Wednesday worship services will resume on January 8 at 12:00 & 6:30 pm.

A Christian Funeral for Pawn Neumann will be held on Saturday, January 4 at 12:00 pm here at Christ Lutheran. A visitation will be held before the service starting at 10:00 am. ECCLESIASTES: A 20/20 View of Life

Series of Worship Services begins January 8
Wednesdays at 12:00 & 6:30 pm

“New year, new you.” How many times have you heard that? How many times have you said that? How many “new you’s” have you managed to come up with? How many New Year’s resolutions have you been able to follow through for the good? As we begin to write 2020 on our checks, the Teacher gives us a 20/20 view of life under the sun and how to handle our annual reminders that we haven’t yet unlocked the secret for “newness” just yet. Join us for this sermon series on the book of Ecclesiastes to gain a 20/20 view of life from God’s perspective. Services are on Wednesdays at 12:00 and 6:30 pm at Christ Pewaukee and on Sundays at 5:00 pm at Erin School. 19-Minute Bible studies follow both of the Wednesday services.

Furnish the Task

The goal of our building expansion is to carry out our mission as a congregation to glorify Christ by nurturing lives for Christian service and sharing Christ with all. That means that when the building is completed, our work as a congregation has just begun. A vital part of carrying out our mission is to have the appropriate furnishings in our new building so that we can utilize the space to its full potential and carry out the task God has given us.

If you would like to participate in Furnish the Task, simply fill out a Furnish the Task Gift Form, place it in the return envelope, and submit it to church in the offering plate, in the donation box on the "Furnish the Task" table, the church office, or by mail. Gift forms and envelopes, as well as a furnishings list, floor plan of the expansion, and more information are located on the "Furnish the Task" table in the gathering area. Donations may be included in the return envelope or submitted online. Access to this information is also available at christpewaukee.org/furnish-the-task. Questions? Contact Pastor Engelbrecht.
