Worship Leader: Pastor Richard Warnecke

Preacher: Pastor Richard Krause

Prayer: Dear Lord, I confess that often I am timid to speak about you to others. Convince me that when I have the opportunity to share your marvelous gospel, the Holy Spirit will give me his strength and the words to say. Motivate me to prepare and practice so that I am ready to share your truth with others with gentleness and respect. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Teach me, O LORD, to follow your decrees;

C: And I will keep them to the end.

P: Give me understanding and I will keep your law

C: And obey it with all my heart.

P: Direct me in the path of your commands,

C: For there I find delight.

P: Turn my heart toward your statutes

C: And not toward selfish gain.

P: Turn my eyes away from worthless things;

C: Preserve my life according to your Word. (Psalm 119:33-36)

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: “All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.” (2 Timothy 3:16,17) Yet so often we have despised God’s Word and have failed to gladly hear and learn it. For this and all our sins, we bow before God and humbly ask for his forgiveness.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil and have failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy of me a sinner.

P: God gave his Word so “that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.” (John 20:31) The Scriptures testify about Jesus, who lived a perfect life for you, died on the cross to pay for all your sins, and rose again to assure you of your salvation. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 66: 10-14

“Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her,
all you who love her;
rejoice greatly with her,
all you who mourn over her.
For you will nurse and be satisfied
at her comforting breasts;
you will drink deeply
and delight in her overflowing abundance.”

For this is what the LORD says:

“I will extend peace to her like a river,
and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream;

you will nurse and be carried on her arm
and dandled on her knees.
As a mother comforts her child,
so will I comfort you;
and you will be comforted over Jerusalem.”

When you see this, your heart will rejoice
and you will flourish like grass;
the hand of the LORD will be made known to his servants,
but his fury will be shown to his foes.

EPISTLE LESSON      Galatians 6: 1-10, 14-18

Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently. But watch yourselves, or you also may be tempted. Carry each other’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. If anyone thinks they are something when they are not, they deceive themselves. Each one should test their own actions. Then they can take pride in themselves alone, without comparing themselves to someone else, for each one should carry their own load. Nevertheless, the one who receives instruction in the word should share all good things with their instructor.

Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. Neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything; what counts is the new creation. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule—to the Israel of God.

From now on, let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

SERMON TEXT

Matthew 13: 1-23

That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the lake. Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat in it, while all the people stood on the shore. Then he told them many things in parables, saying: “A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop—a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown. Whoever has ears, let them hear.”

The disciples came to him and asked, “Why do you speak to the people in parables?”

He replied, “Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them. Whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them. This is why I speak to them in parables:

“Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:

“‘You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.
For this people’s heart has become calloused;
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts
and turn, and I would heal them.’

But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

“Listen then to what the parable of the sower means: When anyone hears the message about the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in their heart. This is the seed sown along the path. The seed falling on rocky ground refers to someone who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away. The seed falling among the thorns refers to someone who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, making it unfruitful. But the seed falling on good soil refers to someone who hears the word and understands it. This is the one who produces a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.”

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

DISTRIBUTION

“Before You I Kneel” (soloist)

Before you I kneel, my Master and Maker,
To offer the work of my hands,
For this is the day you've given your servant;
I will rejoice and be glad
For the strength I have to live and breathe,
For each skill your grace has given me,
For the needs and opportunities
That will glorify your great name.

Before you I kneel and ask for your goodness
To cover the work of my hands,
For patience and peace to shape all my labor,
Your grace for thorns in my path.
Flow within me like a living stream,
Wear away the stones the pride and greed,
'Til your ways are dwelling deep in me
And a harvest of life is grown.

Before you we kneel, our Master and Maker;
Establish the work of our hands.
And order our steps to seek first your kingdom
In every small and great task.
May we live the gospel of your grace,
Serve your purpose in our fleeting days.
Then our lives will bring eternal praise
And all glory to your great name.

PARABLES

THE GREATEST STORIES EVER TOLD

Series of Weekend Worship Services

July 7 — Sept. 1

During our weekend worship services we will be examining and delving into various parables of Jesus, some are more familiar and others less so. A parable is an earthly story that conveys a heavenly meaning. There is great value in studying the parables. They illustrate some of Jesus' most important teachings. And they demand crucial responses from us, just as they did from those who first heard them. It is our prayer that you will be captivated and challenged by the parables, that you will come "eager to hear" what the Lord is saying to you through them.

July 7	Parable of the Sower	Matthew 13:1-23
July 14	The Widow and the Judge	Luke 18:1-8

We want to do everything we can to facilitate family worship here at Christ. We also want to enable parents with young children to have the opportunity to listen to the sermon. That's where Christ Kids comes in.

- During the 10:30 am service everyone will worship together until the sermon hymn.
- At the sermon hymn children ages 3-6 years will be invited to meet their Christ Kids teacher in the back of church and will be safely escorted to the Christ Kids classroom downstairs for Christ-centered learning and activities designed just for them!
- Following the service parents will pick their children up from the Christ Kids classroom.

Note: Christ Kids is an optional service offered to families. Child care during the whole service for children up to age 4 remains available for every Sunday worship service.

ABOUT THE COVER: Abundant and ripe fields are waiting for harvest. As Jesus sent out the 72 into the harvest, he told them to pray for more laborers. Similarly today, our prayers for laborers in the harvest are also prayers for the Lord to use us for his purposes. Through our vocations in our families, occupations, communities, friendships, and other relationships, God is sending us each into the harvest with the Word from the Savior that gathers people to him.
