CALL TO WORSHIP

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: Almighty and everlasting God, Maker of all things, you promise to forgive the sins of all who turn to you in true repentance. Hear us as we confess our sins.

C: Have mercy on me, O God. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit to sustain me.

(silence for personal confession)

P: God in his mercy has given his Son to be born as a baby, to live a perfect life, and to die on a cross and for his sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of the Word, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Isaiah 53: 1-9

Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?
He grew up before him like a tender shoot,
and like a root out of dry ground.
He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him,
nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.
He was despised and rejected by mankind,
a man of suffering, and familiar with pain.
Like one from whom people hide their faces
he was despised, and we held him in low esteem.

Surely he took up our pain
and bore our suffering,

yet we considered him punished by God,
stricken by him, and afflicted.
But he was pierced for our transgressions,
he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace was on him,
and by his wounds we are healed.
We all, like sheep, have gone astray,
each of us has turned to our own way;
and the LORD has laid on him
the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed and afflicted,
yet he did not open his mouth;
he was led like a lamb to the slaughter,
and as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
By oppression and judgment he was taken away.
Yet who of his generation protested?
For he was cut off from the land of the living;
for the transgression of my people he was punished.
He was assigned a grave with the wicked,
and with the rich in his death,
though he had done no violence,
nor was any deceit in his mouth.

PSALM 103

P: The LORD works righteousness and justice for all the oppressed.

C: He make known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the people of Israel.

P: The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love.

C: He does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.

P: For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him;

C: As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

P: As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him;

C: For he knows how we are formed, he remembers that we are dust.

P: As for man, his days are like grass, he flourishes like a flower of the field;

C: The wind blows over it and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more.

P: But from everlasting to everlasting the LORD's love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children's children—

C: With those who keep his covenant and remember to obey his precepts. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

EPISTLE LESSON Colossians 1: 21-23

Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation—if you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

SERMON TEXT John 1: 10-13

He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

Christ Connection Groups are Bible study groups held in people's homes. The upcoming round of Christ Connection Groups, beginning the first week of February, are being held at several times and locations around Lake Country. The groups meet for study once a week for four weeks. Find a time and place that works for you and sign up today! Signups are on the table next to the kiosks in the back of church.

Daniel in the Lion's Den. Three Men in the Fiery Furnace. These are some of our favorite Bible stories. Often, we think of these stories as shining examples of the faithfulness of God's people. And it's true! God's people displayed incredible faithfulness throughout the book and life of Daniel. But another look at these stories reveals that God's faithfulness to his people shines even brighter. Join us as we make our way through the book of Daniel to see a portrait of God's faithfulness.
