Luke 20:13

Fifth Sunday in Lent

April 7, 2019

Worship Leader: Pastor Timothy Gerbing
Preacher: Pastor Richard Krause

Prayer: O God, release me from the emptiness of a life of sin. In the midst of my oppressive weakness, restore to me the joy of your salvation. Remind me of the cross on which your Son bore the guilt of my sin. Remind me of the empty tomb by which he gained for me the freedom to live. Thank you, God my father, for the joy and peace that revive me and restore me to live in and for you. In your Son's name I pray. Amen.

INVOCATION

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: Beloved in the Lord: let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins to God our Father, asking him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

P: God, our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

“First Song of Isaiah” (soloist 8:00 am service, Trinity Lutheran School students 10:30 am service)
The congregation will sing the refrain, and the soloist/children will sing the verses.

Refrain

Sure-ly, it is God who saves me; I will trust in him and not be a - fraid. For the Lord is my strong-hold and my sure de-fense, and he will be my Sav - ior.

Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing
From the springs of salvation.
And on that day you shall say, “Give thanks to the Lord!”
And call upon his name. (refrain)

Make his deeds known among the peoples;
See that they remember that his name is exalted.
Sing the praises of the Lord, for he has done great things,
And this is know in all the world. (refrain)

Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion,
Ring out your joy,
For the great one in the midst of you
Is the Holy One of Israel. (refrain two times)

BAPTISM Wesley Alexander Turner (10:30 am service)

RESPONSIVE PASSION HISTORY READING

Leader: “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?”

Women: With one voice they cried out to the governor:

Men: “Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!”

Women: Barabbas had been thrown into prison for an insurrection in the city, and for murder. Wanting to release Jesus, Pilate appealed to them again. But they kept shouting,

Men: “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

Women: For the third time he spoke to them:

Leader: “Why? What crime has this man committed? I have found in him no grounds for the death penalty. Therefore, I will have him punished and then release him.”

Women: But the Jews kept shouting,

Men: “If you let this man go, you are no friend of Caesar. Anyone who claims to be a king opposes Caesar.”

Women: When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judge’s seat at a place known as the Stone Pavement. It was the day of Preparation of Passover Week, about the sixth hour. Pilate said to the Jews:

Leader: “Here is your king.”

Men: “Take him away! Take him away! Crucify him!”

Leader: “Shall I crucify your king?”

Men: “We have no king but Caesar.”

Women: When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that instead an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. He said:

Leader: “I am innocent of this man’s blood. It is your responsibility!”

Men: “Let his blood be on us and on our children!”

Women: Then he released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified.

Leader: The soldiers led Jesus away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium) and called together the whole company of soldiers. And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out to crucify him. As they led him away, they seized Simon from Cyrene, who was on his way in from the country, and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus. A large number of people followed him, including women who mourned and wailed for him. Jesus turned and said to them:

Men: “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children. For the time will come when you will say,

Women: ‘Blessed are the barren women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!’

Men: “Then, they will say to the mountains: ‘Fall on us!’ and to the hills: ‘Cover us!’ For if men do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

Leader: Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed. They came to a place called Golgatha (which means The Place of the Skull). There they offered Jesus wine to drink, mixed with gall; but after tasting it, he refused to drink it. There they crucified him, along with the criminals — one on his right, the other on his left. Jesus said,

Men: “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.”

Leader: Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross. It read, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. Many of the Jews read this sign, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek. The chief priests of the Jews protested to Pilate:

Men: “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but that this man claimed to be king of the Jews.”

Women: Pilate answered:

Leader: “What I have written, I have written.”

SERMON TEXT Luke 20: 9-20

He went on to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, rented it to some farmers and went away for a long time. At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants so they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed. He sent another servant, but that one also they beat and treated shamefully and sent away empty-handed. He sent still a third, and they wounded him and threw him out.

“Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my son, whom I love; perhaps they will respect him.’

“But when the tenants saw him, they talked the matter over. ‘This is the heir,’ they said. ‘Let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

“What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others.”

When the people heard this, they said, “God forbid!”

Jesus looked directly at them and asked, “Then what is the meaning of that which is written:

“‘The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone’?

Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; anyone on whom it falls will be crushed.”

The teachers of the law and the chief priests looked for a way to arrest him immediately, because they knew he had spoken this parable against them. But they were afraid of the people.

Keeping a close watch on him, they sent spies, who pretended to be sincere. They hoped to catch Jesus in something he said, so that they might hand him over to the power and authority of the governor.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

DISTRIBUTION

“God Loved the World so That He Gave” (soloist)

God loved the world so that he gave his only Son the lost to save
That all who would in him believe should everlasting life receive.

Christ is the solid rock of faith, who was made flesh and suffered death.
All who confide in him alone are built on this chief cornerstone.

God would not have the sinner die—his Son with saving grace is nigh.
His Spirit in the Word does teach how we the blessed goal may reach.

Be of good cheer, for God's own Son forgives the sins that you have done.
You're justified by Jesus' blood; baptized you are a child of God.

When you are sick, when death draws near, this truth your troubled heart can cheer:
Christ Jesus saves my soul from death— this is the anchor of my faith!

Glory to God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Three in One!
To you, O blessed Trinity, be praise now and eternally! (CW 391)

CLOSING PRAYER AND BLESSING

P: Eternal God and Father, your Son obeyed your will and bore the cross for our salvation. Help us to remember that through his rejection, suffering, and death we receive the forgiveness of sins and the promise of eternal life in heaven. Strengthen our faith, and give us greater anticipation of the glory that you will soon reveal through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C: Amen.

P: The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The Lord look on you with favor and (†) give you peace.

C: Amen.

(all sing)

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the Word.
From heav'n he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

The Church shall never perish. Her dear Lord, to defend,
To guide, sustain, and cherish, is with her to the end.
Though there be those that hate her and strive to see her fail,
Against both foe and traitor she ever shall prevail.

Mid toil and tribulation and tumult of her war
She waits the consummation of peace forevermore
Till with the vision glorious her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious shall be the Church at rest. (CW 538:1,3,5)

What a blessed means of God's grace the Lord's Supper is! Attention Parents: If you need a place to take a crying or noisy child during the service, you may use the parents' room adjacent to the sanctuary. You can hear and view the service there. You will find a diaper changing station in the parents' room and in both restrooms located in the coatroom area.

The Altar Flowers are given to the glory of God by Lindsey Smith in loving memory of her mom, Sue, and by Alex & Lindsay Turner in celebration of their son Wesley's baptism today.

A visitation will precede the funeral service from 3:00-5:00 pm, and a meal will follow the service at 6:00 pm. Pray that Ellen and family will be strengthened and comforted through the resurrection promise of our Savior, "Because I live, you will live also."

ABOUT THE COVER: Sometimes it only takes a change of perspective, such as viewing the great expanse of the sky over the vineyard, to be reminded that this is the Lord's vineyard. Those who work the ground are only caretakers. The Father has sent his Son to a world that refuses to recognize who he is. Though the world crucified the Son, it was God's plan of redemption all along.
